Edgar Chilton Celebrates 89th Birthday

Many friends and relatives of Mr. Edgar Chilton from various sections of the country assembled to celebrate his 89th birthday on March 15, 1976 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eulla Harvey of Spout Spring.

Mr. Chilton, a native of Appomattox, has traveled extensively, spending twenty years in Philadelphia (1955-1975). Through all these years, however, he maintained close contact with his home and home church, Promise Land Baptist Church, Promise Land.

He presently resides in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson in Spout Spring.

Musical "Alleluia" Will Be Presented Sunday At New Hope

The 25-voice Adult and Youth Choir of New Hope Baptist Church just off Highway 24 East at Vera will present the musical "Alleluia" this coming Sunday night, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

"Alleluia" is a contemporary musical by Bill and Gloria Gaither and Ronn Huff with an old, old story blended with a full orchestral accompaniment on a pre-recorded tape background. Anyone who appreciates good music will be moved by the beauty and message of the music itself. Add to this the spoken word in testimony and dialogue, the singing of the choir, and the solos by Teresa Calder, James Franklin, Carroll Goodrich, Tamara Nash, Ann Reynolds, and Calvin Smith, and you have a top-notch musical.

"Alleluia" is a service of praise. It is primarily intended as a praise- gathering for a body of believers. It seems that in the busy activity of the contemporary church, we who are believers -- those of us whose lives have been changed through a personal encounter with Jesus Christ -- spend too little time just praising the Lord. In this service, we praise Him together as we reflect on His birth, His life, His sacrifice on Calvary and His triumphant resurrection. We praise Him together as we share testimonies -- from the past and present -- of His marvelous dealings with men. We praise Him together for the assurance of His continued involvement in our lives as we trust Him and commit our lives to Him. "Alleluia" is more than just the lyrics and notes of a musical production. It is an attitude . . . a spirit! From the very beginning, everyone involved needs to join together in a spirit of praise and worship.

Rev. Clarence H. Davis, the pastor of the church, will serve as narrator of the musical. Mr. Barry Elder, the music director of the church, will be directing the musical.
